

```
/*
```

```
How to Retrieve The URL For Your Running Flex Application
```

```
http://userflex.wordpress.com/2008/05/15/running-app-url/
```

```
*/
```

```
package com.userflex.sample.util
```

```
{
```

```
    // import statements
```

```
    import flash.external.ExternalInterface;
```

```
/
```

```
 * The JSUtil class is an all-static class with methods for accessing * JavaScript values using ExternalInterface. You do not create * instances of JSUtil; instead you simply call static methods such as * the JSUtil.getWindowLocation() method.
```

```
*/
```

```
public class JSUtil
```

```
{
```

```
    /
```

```
     * Returns the current application URL.
```

```
     *
```

```
     * @return the current application URL
```

```
     */
```

```
    public static function getWindowLocation () : String
```

```
    {
```

```
        var location : String = null;
```

```
        // checks if external interface is available
```

```
        if (ExternalInterface.available)
```

```
        {
```

```
            try
```

```
            {
```

```
                location = ExternalInterface.call
                    ("window.location.href.toString");
```

```
            }
```

```
            catch (error : Error)
```

```
            {
```

```
                location = null;
```

```
            }
```

```
        }
```

```
        return location;
```

```
    }
```

```
}
```

```
}
```